COLOSSEUM

II

HISTORY

In 64 CE the Great Fire of Rome devastated the city and Emperor Nero seized much of the area where the Colosseum now stands for himself. Construction began under Emperor Vespasian in CE 72 and was completed by his successor and heir, Titus, in CE 80. Further modifications were carried out during the reign of Domitian, the 3rd emperor in the Flavian dynasty, including the building of the hypogeum underneath the arena.

STORIA

Nel 64 d.C., il grande incendio di Roma devastò la città e l'imperatore Nerone prese possesso di gran parte dell'area in cui il Colosseo si trova ora. La costruzione iniziò sotto l'imperatore Vespasiano nel 72 d.C e fu completata dal suo successore ed erede, Tito, nell'80 d.C. Ulteriori modifiche furono apportate durante il regno di Domiziano, il 3° imperatore della dinastia dei Flavi, tra cui la costruzione dell'ipogeo sotto l'arena.

Crowds would flock to see the dramatic re-enactment of historic sea battles.

Grandi folle accorrevano per ammirare le drammatiche e storiche ricostruzioni delle battaglie navali.

THE SPECTACLE

Some of the most popular events in the Colosseum were the reconstruction of epic naval battles. The first one was staged in AD 80, when the arena was flooded and specially constructed flat-bottomed ships replicated the battle between Athens and Syracuse. It is still unclear how the arena could be filled with water and drained again so quickly, but many ancient writers describe these spectacular shows that were called naumachiae.

GLI SPETTACOLI

Gli eventi forse più popolari che si tenevano nel Colosseo erano le rappresentazioni delle battaglie navali. La prima fu messa in scena nell'80 d.C., quando l'arena fu allagata e navi a fondo piatto furono appositamente costruite per ricreare la battaglia tra Atene e Siracusa. Non è ancora chiaro come l'arena fosse riempita d'acqua e quindi rapidamente drenata, ma molti scrittori antichi descrivono questi spettacoli, chiamati naumachie.

Each tier was divided into sections and further subdivided into cunei, or wedges, by the steps and aisles from the vomitoria. Each row (gradus) of seats was numbered, permitting each individual seat to be exactly designated by its gradus, cuneus, and number.

Ogni livello era diviso in sezioni e ulteriormente suddiviso in “cunei” dalle scalette e dagli accessi alla cavea (vomitoria). Ogni livello (gradino) era numerato, e ogni singolo posto era precisamente contrassegnato tramite il gradino, il cuneo e il numero.

THE SPECTATORS

With estimated crowds of up to 80,000, the composition of the Colosseum's audience mirrored the rigid class structure of Roman society. Special boxes at the north and south ends of the arena offered the best views and were reserved for the emperor. These were surrounded by the senatorial class, while the tier directly above was occupied by the noblemen. Above them sat the wealthy and respected citizens of the city, and at the very top stood the common poor and slaves.

GLI SPETTATORI

Con una capienza massima stimata di 80.000 spettatori, la composizione del pubblico del Colosseo rispecchiava la rigida struttura di classe della società romana. Palchi speciali alle estremità nord e sud dell'arena offrivano la vista migliore ed erano riservati all'imperatore. Questi palchi erano circondati dai posti riservati ai senatori, mentre il livello situato direttamente sopra i palchi era occupato dai nobili. Al livello ancora superiore sedevano i cittadini ricchi e rispettati della città e l'ultimo livello era riservato alla plebe e agli schiavi.
